Minnesota Region 2009 Annual Meeting, Seminars and Awards
November 21, 2009
Embassy Suites – Brooklyn Park, MN

Something new this year – a Friday night social time – People are encouraged to enjoy the special rates at the hotel – just $99.00 (plus taxes) for either a one bedroom or two bedroom suite in this brand new hotel. Rates include a manager's reception in the evening, PLUS a gourmet hot breakfast in the morning. No need to get up with the birds. A block of rooms is reserved for us. Call Leslie Johnson, Sales Manager, at 763-367-3794 and mention Antique Car Club for the special room rate.

We all know that collecting and driving antique cars is not the only thing in your life. Bring a sampling of that other hobby and share with others. There will be tables/chairs available for your display, by reservation (no charge). Assorted snacks for the evening

Saturday morning seminars include:

- Peter Ferch sharing his Burlington Northern railroad memorabilia – How did he collect all that?
- Floyd Jaehnert presents Engines 101 – What is that thing and what does it do?
- Body repair – Tom Plantikow, Creative Auto Services (he repaired Jim Blask's little "oops")
- Memories – bring something from your past (clothing, pictures, etc.) and share the memories

Luncheon will be served family style at noon, following the seminars. Menu includes chicken, potatoes, vegetable, rolls and beverage.

Annual business meeting and awards - Reviewing the year 2009 – Looking to the future – Rewarding those who have contributed so much during the year.

Don't miss a single minute of it. Watch for the official registration form in this issue of Northern Lights.
